"A CHILD'S WORLD"

Gwynn Valley, situated on 320 acres in the beautiful Blue Ridge Mountains in Brevard, NC, has been a summer camp for younger boys and girls since 1935. We offer a working farm, wilderness, and traditional program that nurtures the child while fostering a connection with the land and the simple joys of childhood.

Mary Gwynn, the camp's founder, envisioned a special, nurturing environment where younger boys and girls could thrive in a noncompetitive atmosphere that emphasized individual achievement. Hiking and pioneering were combined with fine arts, creative writing, and crafts to create a unique arts and outdoor-living-skills experience.

Throughout the camp's development, its philosophy and values have remained constant. Today, Gwynn Valley continues to focus on Miss Mary's commitment to a child-centered world where each individual is a vital part of the community. Acceptance, simplicity, a noncompetitive program, and an appreciation of the natural world are the core values emphasized as we play and work together throughout the summer.

AMERICAN CAMP ASSOCIATION

We at Gwynn Valley are proud to be members of the American Camp Association (ACA). The ACA is a nation-wide, non-profit, non-sectarian organization interested in professional quality camping for children.

ACA accreditation means that the camp you have chosen for your child cares enough to undergo a thorough (over 300 standards) review of its operation—staff qualifications and training to emergency management.

ACA helps accredited camps provide:

- Healthy, developmentally appropriate activities and learning experiences
- Discovery through experiential education
- Caring, competent role models
